WE HAD THE SPIRIT . . .

... IN ACADEMICS ...

... individually, we had the spirit as we studied to gain knowledge as well as to pass tests.

... as a group, we achieved the academic goals to meet the Standards of a nationally recognized group -- the National Honor Society.

Mr. Overholser speaks to the students and to the National Honor Society on the importance of Academic Standards.

Terry Davisson studies for West Poing entrance tests--which he passed!

Mr. Middleton shows the new Biology Club officers in the most effective way--"seeing is believing!"

...each of us experimented, watched, and listened in classes and as we studied. . .we strived to strengthen and improve our Academic Spirit.

... IN ACTIVITIES ...

...we had the spirit to become leaders in various activities. ...we each did our part behind the scenes to make the activities a success.

Susie Rishling, head twirler, performed at the football and basketball games.

Janet Merica, Editor, and reporters serve the hungry football fans to finance our school paper.

...as a team, we had the fun and the honor of becoming champions.

The girls of the G. A. A. bowling league display their trophy.

...even though we worked, the spirit of fun and pleasure prevailed.

Dancers enjoy the Oriental Gardens of the Junior Prom.

...IN ATHLETICS...

...individually we had the spirit to train and to practice endless hours to achieve---and set records. . .

...as a team, we acquired a courageous fighting spirit and good sportsmanship in competition. . .

As 1961 Sectional Champions, the Bombers overcame obstacles, rose to the occasion, and came home with the crown.

Dick Roth (On the Mark!) ready for his record-breaking 440 yard dash.

...each member of our teams listened and learned as each was instructed and inspired by our coaches whether we won or lost.

Bombers plan the winning strategy for the second half of a grueling game.

Remember as freshmen how baffling those locker combinations were---most of the time the lockers remained locked tight as a vault.

MEMORIES

As Seniors our lockers were so stuffed that we couldn't get them closed!

Remember the conversation which flowed freely at noon in the entrance hall?

Remember (and who could forget it) the feeling we had at graduation when we received that long awaited diploma.

All these memories and many more will be brought to mind whenever we pass the halls of R. H. S.

ACTIVITIES

Queen Lynn shows her crown to members of her court: Wanda Pugh, Cheryl Pullin, Annette Baker, Susan Rishling.

The Curious Savage

The Curious Savage, a delightful comedy, takes place in the unusual atmosphere of "The Cloisters", a quiet home to which the guests have been committed.
